

Media Specialist of the Year

Is there a Media Specialist that seems to exemplify our profession? Someone you admire for all their hard-work and deserves special recognition? Nominate him or her for the award of MDMSA's Media Specialist of the Year! The winner will be announced and honored at our annual award's luncheon in May.

MDMSA will honor one Media Specialist with a plaque, a monetary award, and notice will be sent to the school board and Superintendent.

When nominating a media specialist, please consider all of the roles we embody - teacher, information & media specialist, instructional consultant.

For example:

- Teaches students information literacy skills
- Promotes lifelong reading and learning
- Plans collaboratively with teachers
- Provides staff in-service
- Shares resources and expertise with others
- Provides an inviting learning environment
- Promotes the library media program at all school levels
- Takes an active school leadership role
- Shares resources and expertise with library media colleagues

Submit your nominations by April 2nd to Dianna Rose, Media Specialist, Palm Lakes Elementary, mail code #4241, or via e-mail at drose@dadeschools.net with a one-page nomination letter
